Qosmedix® Swing & Stack Eye Palette with Mirror

Edgewood, N.Y., March 24, 2005 – For a knockout packaging option, try our new swing and stack eye-shaped palette with mirror and applicator part # 50010. This versatile eye shadow container swings open to display five individual pans and a foam applicator, perfect for powders or creams. The package snaps shut with a click to prevent opening when not in use.

Our polystyrene container is crystal clear with a mirrored top making applying product convenient and easy. Each pan capacity is 1.5 grams of product. This economically priced packaging will make your product line stand out with this unique, beautiful design.

Qosmedix also offers many different packaging alternatives for your beauty products. Contact us for assistance with samples or catalog requests for our packaging selections.
